Description

Celtic-Plus is a European EUREKA R&D&I programme that aims to strengthen the competitiveness of the European industry by fostering European R&D cooperation in telecommunications, and the well-being of the society by stimulating innovative information and telecommunication services. Celtic-Plus focuses on telecommunication and ICT connecting people and businesses in a secure way. Key topics include network capacity, optics, satellite, mobility, security, robustness, energy efficiency, 5G, Smart Cities, Smart Homes, digital enterprises, e-health, big data, Internet of Things, privacy, identity and public safety. InterInnov is a company specialized in international research and innovation partnerships and public affairs, more specifically in relation with Information and Communication Technologies. We are involved in European programmes such as H2020 and Eureka. Come partner with us!
