Description

The Social Coin engages citizens into social challenges through their good deeds, to create meaningful communities. The Social Coin offers a digital platform combining mobile and web that engages individuals and increases their impact. Governments can improve citizen's feedback and their trust, thanks to real time metrics on the city challenges and communities behavior. Via our mobile application (<http://j.mp/1F2yXf7>) and the "True Social Network", individuals perform any thoughtful good deed, then inspires others. The Social Coin's SPARK is based in Blockchain technology and has an open API to be connected with every single City Coin or citizen rewarding system. Positive behavior becomes a new layer of reputation for the new economy, based on what you do and the impact it has in the world. 200,000+ good deeds were performed in 105+ countries thus far in first 18 months.
