Description

Grupo Prominente (www.grupoprominente.com) an IT software and services company with more than 30 years of experience in the market delivering solutions to different industry segments both in private and public sectors.

We are participating at the SCEWC in order to present Mr-Bubo (www.mr-bubo.com), our most recent smart city App for mobile devices. Through this platform local government agencies and public service companies enable citizens and local actors to take action to improve the service they provide by interacting with them through a first class, user friendly, mobile application.
